TRIANGLE FAMILY SERVICES LAUNCHES NEW WEBSITE *ALLOWS ONLINE GIVING

RALEIGH – Triangle Family Services (TFS) launched a new website today allowing donors to give online, www.trianglefamilyservices.org. Thanks to the generous donation of time and expertise from Connections Too, a marketing communications and multimedia firm located in Raleigh, the new website allows donations to be made online in minutes.

One of the goals of the new website is to make it easy for donors to make financial contributions to the agency. In addition to donating online, donors are given information on all the choices they have when donating. Donors can choose to donate in the form of pledges, endowments, stocks and securities, United Way designations, and Combined State Employee Fund designations, and all this information is available on the new website.

Triangle Family Services, established in 1937, is one of the oldest agencies in the Triangle. The agency's mission is, "Building a stronger community by strengthening the family". TFS annually provides services to more than 7,000 individuals and families living throughout the Triangle. All programs address three primary areas: 1) family safety, 2) financial stability, and 3) mental health.

"The new website provides an enhanced, centralized vehicle for online giving," said Triangle Family Services CEO and President, George H. O'Neal, III. "TFS is committed to using technology to better serve families. Our goal is to remove any barriers donors may have to contributing and assisting Triangle Family Services in meeting the needs of the community."
